WeGo Spring service changes postponed Originally set for April 5, changes on hold amid COVID-19

NASHVILLE – WeGo Public Transit has decided to postpone its Spring Service changes, previously scheduled to take effect Sunday, April 5. Due to the ever-changing situation as Middle Tennessee navigates COVID-19 concerns, customers who are relying on transit during this time should not bear burdens on service changes unless they are connected to COVID-19 response.

Service modifications are currently being discussed with Union leadership and announcements could come as early as Friday.

Members of the public are encouraged to sign up for WeGo's newsletter, follow them on social media, and visit WeGoTransit.com to get updates on initiatives, community events, updates, and general information.
