WeGo to end Sunday Service on May 31 at 8:00 p.m.

NASHVILLE – WeGo Public Transit will end service from Downtown beginning at 7:15 p.m. due to an 8 p.m. curfew in place for Davidson County until 6 a.m. Monday.

All WeGo buses headed out from downtown at 7:15 p.m. will drop off passengers until the bus reaches the end of the line and no passengers will be picked up for the rest of the evening. Access trips will continue to operate until all reservations are completed.

We apologize for the inconvenience. WeGo plans to resume normally scheduled operations tomorrow morning, Monday, June 1.
